Taxes, Canoe Race, Darkhouse And Anglers Association

April 15 is approaching. Remember that since River Keepers is a non-profit, 501 (c)3 organization, certain expenses associated with your membership investments and mileage undertaken in support of our activities may be tax deductible. For 2004 the charitable standard mileage rate is $. 17/mile.

Mark your calendars for Race the Red canoe and kayak race on Saturday, June 5th. Other activities that day will include a youth fishing clinic/derby, kayak demonstration and National Trails Day. Are you interested in helping coordinate the canoe and kayak race? Please contact Christine by replying to this email or calling the office.

Former River Keepers board President, Jay Leitch, will be one of several guest speakers at an organizational meeting of a local chapter of the Minnesota Darkhouse and Anglers Association at 7 p.m., Sunday, February 22 at the Moorhead American Legion. Deuy Johnston (decoy carver) will be there also. For more information call Deuy at 218-837-5024.

If you would like to be taken off this e-new list or have comments please respond to this e-mail.
